STIPULATION

The parties through their counsel, stipulate as follows:

1. Plaintiff, Diane Rosetsky, is an equal shareholder with her husband, Norman Rosetsky, in the corporate business, 54th Street Check Cashing Incorporated a/d/b/a Checks 54th, Inc. She is also a former corporate officer, and was employed by the corporation for periods of time.
2. Ms. Rosetsky has also executed Form 4506 (Request for Copy of Tax Return) and Form 8821 (Tax Information Authorization), authorizing counsel to receive the corporate returns for the years 2002 through 2006. These forms are attached hereto.
3. Plaintiff and her husband are estranged and engaged in divorce proceedings, and plaintiff has therefore not asked Mr. Rosetsky to sign a similar authorization, but has agreed that the Court may order production of same by the IRS.
4. The IRS has instructed defense counsel that the IRS requires either an authorization by both shareholders to obtain the corporate returns, or a Court Order.

5. The parties stipulate and agree that the Court may enter the attached Order.
